The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes (episodes 034 thru 128) aired as part of Imagination Theatre on KIXI in Seattle and was syndicated as part of Imagination Theatre on radio stations in the United States and New Zealand. It was also heard around the world over the Internet. (Imagination Theatre also airs French's Crisis; Raffles, The Gentleman Thief; The Adventures of Harry Nile; The Hilary Caine Mysteries; Kincaid, The Strangeseeker, The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes and several other series.) Effective September 11, 2016 selected episodes of The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes and The Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes are airing on the Sirius/XM satellite RadioClassics Channel #148.

Previously, the series was heard in the Seattle area as part of

Imagination Theatre on KNWX (episodes 014-033),
The PEMCO Imagination Theatre on KNWX (episodes 009-013), and
The KIRO Mystery Playhouse on KIRO (episodes 001-008.)

SERIES DESCRIPTION:

As the series title implies, these adventures were not dramatizations of the original Sherlock Holmes stories written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. They were usually, rather, pastiches, completely new adventures that remain faithful to the spirit, style, and tone of the original stories. Even Holmes' addiction to cocaine was alluded to in "The Billingsgate Horror" episode. Holmes admits, "My mind needs a stimulant, other than the kind I used to keep in my drawer."

Two episodes of this series were based on Conan Doyle short stories:

"The Adventure of the Parisian Assassin" adapted as "The Lost Special" and

"The Lady Sannox Investigation" adapted as "The Case Of Lady Sannox."

Most of Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson literature are now in the public domain, however, Jim French has gone to the effort of making an arrangement with the estate of Dame Jean Conan Doyle for the use of these and other characters in his radio dramatizations.

The Dr. Watson character, as played by Lawrence Albert, is no bumbler; he is Holmes' trusted and respected friend, associate, and confidant. Watson often discovers valuable clues that aid in the solving of their cases.

Jim French is especially proud of the salute given his series by the BBC's "Radio 4" programme, which played an excerpt of one of his shows to their listeners in England, commenting with some surprise that all the actors were Americans, and calling it "one of the best radio dramas currently available in the English language."
