Last Show: Series is still in production
Weeks on the Air: 841 and counting
Audition Show: None

BACKGROUND:

Jim French has been writing, directing, and producing radio dramas for Seattle listeners since 1965. Prior to the advent of the weekly, syndicated Imagination Theatre by TransMedia on March 17, 1996, Jim's shows were usually only aired in the Seattle, WA area. Imagination Theatre is syndicated on radio stations throughout the United States and is also heard on Sirius XM satellite radio and worldwide over the Internet. In January, 2007 Jim French Productions assumed syndication operations from TransMedia.

"UMBRELLA TITLES":

Imagination Theatre is an "umbrella title" under which the various series and stand-alone shows of Jim French Productions and others air. Over the years, Imagination Theatre shows have aired on three Seattle flagship stations: KIRO, KNWX, and KIXI.

Each station has had one or more "umbrella titles" under which Imagination Theatre has been aired. These local "umbrella titles" are:

KIRO Mystery Playhouse on KIRO 12/16/1990 - 02/21/1999,
PEMCO Imagination Theatre on KNWX 02/21/1999 - 03/19/2000,
Imagination Theatre on KNWX 03/26/2000 - 01/05/2003,
and

Imagination Theatre on KIXI 01/12/2003 - Present.

PROGRAM FORMAT:

Imagination Theatre occupies a 55-minute time slot. Usually two shows are aired on Imagination Theatre weekly. Frequently, the second show is one that has been previously aired on Imagination Theatre. Occasionally, a single, double-length Jim French-produced show is aired in the time slot. (See EPISODE NOTES: Double-Length Episodes: for a listing of the Jim French double-length show that have aired on Imagination Theatre.) Episodes of non-Jim French produced series, Louis L'Amour Theatre and Powder River, are double-length shows.

Programming Note:

It has only been since late 2000 that initial airings of newly produced shows normally occur during the same broadcast week on both the flagship station in Seattle, and the syndicated Imagination Theatre. Before then, new shows were usually aired on Seattle radio prior to their syndicated Imagination Theatre initial airing.

The syndicated Imagination Theatre airs on Sunday evenings on the flagship station in Seattle. Affiliate radio stations select when they air the series.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS:

The following are brief descriptions of and information about the series that air on Imagination Theatre. (More detailed information for several Jim French series in the form of series broadcast logs can be found at links listed within the series descriptions.

NOTE: that not all episodes of all Jim French series have or will air on Imagination Theatre.

Tower Playhouse

A short-run anthology series by Jim French. The series name came from the fact that the KVI radio studios were in the Smith Tower Building.

Crisis

Anthology series by Jim French. Mainly dramas & a few comedy episodes. His opening, used in the early episodes, best sums up the series concept, "Sooner or later, when you least expect it, there comes a point of no return. A dead-end from which there seems no escape. A moment in time. A moment of Crisis!"

YEARS OF RUN: 1973-77 as Crisis. See STATUS: for additional information.
NUMBER OF EPISODES: 152 as Crisis.

STATUS: Morphed into KIRO Mystery Playhouse and PEMCO Imagination Theatre and is still in production as Stand-Alone shows on Imagination Theatre.

Stand-Alone Shows:

These shows do not belong to any of the regular series that are presented on Imagination Theatre.

2 Stand-alone shows initially aired on KIRO in 1965.

1 Stand-alone show initially aired on KVI Theater Of The Mind.

97 Stand-Alone shows initially aired on KIRO Mystery Playhouse.

71 Stand-Alone shows thus far have initially aired on the various local incarnations of Imagination Theatre.

NOTE: Not all of these Stand-Alone shows have aired on Imagination Theatre.

The Adventures Of Harry Nile

Stories about a 1940's - 1960's private detective created by Jim French. Series is set in Los Angeles and Seattle with a few episodes taking place in Chicago and elsewhere. Started as part of the Crisis series.

YEARS OF RUN: 1976 to Present.

NUMBER OF EPISODES TO DATE: 240

STATUS: Still in production.

NOTES:

Crisis/The Adventures Of Harry Nile:

Four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile ("West For My Health," "Seattle Blues," "The Neptune Trading Company," and "Malibu") were first aired as part of the Crisis series. When Jim decided to make a "Harry Nile" series these shows were aired again in late 1977 as the first four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile series.

Possible "Lost" Episode:

Information received from Jim French Productions in July, 2008 indicates that an episode, "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was recorded and scheduled to air sometime in June, 1978. However, there is no proof that this episode was actually broadcast and no copy of this episode is currently known to exist.

The script for "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was later extensively modified and broadcast on Imagination Theatre as "A Scheduled Murder" on 11/13/2005.

500th Imagination Theatre Broadcast:

On 10/16/2005, "The Third Gate," a special program for the 500th week of Imagination Theatre aired on a one-time basis only. Featured were characters from various Jim French series: Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson (The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes), Harry Nile and Murphy (The Adventures Of Harry Nile), Raffles and Bunny (Raffles, the Gentleman Thief), Hilary Caine (The Hilary Caine Mysteries), and Michael Kincaid, Shelly Mars and Randall "Biggie" Bigelow (Kincaid, The Strangeseeker) all appearing in one adventure as written by Jim French and British writer M. J. Elliott.)

Special Imagination Theatre 15th Anniversary Broadcast:

"Fifteen Years Later: Chapter 10 of War Comes to Harry Nile"

A special episode of The Adventures Of Harry Nile.

This double-length story celebrates 15 years of Imagination Theatre broadcasts and features guest stars

John Patrick Lowrie from The Classic and Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes;

Terry Rose from Kincaid, The Strangeseeker;

John Armstrong from Raffles, The Gentleman Thief;

and

Karen Heaven from The Hilary Caine Mysteries.

The time is June, 1944 and following the events of Chapter 3, "D-Day Minus One," Harry is still in England waiting to get a flight home. However, he isn't bored. He manages to get himself involved with murder, treason and a former "girl" detective. He also encounters an aged consulting detective; a reformed, for the duration, gentleman thief; and a nut job who says he is a seeker of the strange and unusual.

LIVE BROADCASTS:

Only two Jim French shows have been broadcast live. These are "The Case Of The Blue Leather Chair," an episode from The Adventures Of Harry Nile, and a stand-alone show, "Moving Day." They were broadcast on New Year's Eve 1995.

RECORDING SESSIONS:

Starting in 1991, over 290 shows that initially aired on KIRO Mystery Playhouse, PEMCO Imagination Theatre, and Imagination Theatre have been recorded before live audiences.

Through January 2000, recording sessions were held at the Museum of History and Industry in Seattle.

Recording sessions are currently held at the Kirkland Performance Center in Kirkland, WA. The recording sessions are open to the public and usually occur at roughly two month intervals. Usually, episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile and The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes and/or The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes are recorded at each session.
