STATUS NOTE:

Effective Friday, March 31, 2017 Jim French Productions has ceased producing new shows.

BACKGROUND:

Jim French has been writing, directing, and producing radio dramas for Seattle listeners since 1965. He has written and/or produced 1002 shows and new shows are being added most months. While most of the shows are episodes of his various series (see SERIES DESCRIPTIONS:), there are 183 stand-alone shows.

Until the advent of the syndicated Imagination Theatre by TransMedia on March 17, 1996, Jim's shows were usually only aired in the Seattle area. Jim French Productions assumed syndication operations from TransMedia in January, 2007. These shows are syndicated as part of Imagination Theatre on radio stations throughout the United States, New Zealand, and worldwide over the Internet. Effective September 11, 2016 selected episodes of The Adventures of Harry Nile, The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes and The Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes were airing on the Sirius/XM satellite RadioClassics Channel #148.

It was only since late 2000 that initial airings of new shows normally occur on the same date on both the flagship station in Seattle, and the syndicated Imagination Theatre. Before then, new shows were usually aired on Seattle radio prior to their syndicated Imagination Theatre initial airing.

This log lists the first airing dates of all shows on Seattle radio. If a show was later incorporated into a specific series, the initial airing date as part of that series is also listed.

"UMBRELLA TITLES":

Over the years, Jim French's shows have aired on four Seattle stations: KVI, KIRO, KNWX, and KIXI.

Each of these stations has had more or more "umbrella titles" under which his series and stand-alone shows have been aired. These local "umbrella titles" are:

KVI Theater Of The Mind on KVI,
The KIRO Mystery Playhouse on KIRO,
PEMCO Imagination Theatre on KNWX,
Imagination Theatre on KNWX,
and
Imagination Theatre on KIXI.

The beginning and ending dates of these "umbrella title" programs are given later in the Log.

Crisis/The Adventures Of Harry Nile:

Four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile ("West For My Health," "Seattle Blues," "The Neptune Trading Company," and "Malibu") were first aired as part of the Crisis series. When Jim decided to make a "Harry Nile" series these shows were aired again in late 1977 as the first four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile series.

Possible "Lost" Episode:

Information received from Jim French Productions in July, 2008 indicates that an episode, "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was recorded and scheduled to air sometime in June, 1978. However, there is no proof that this episode was actually broadcast and no copy of this episode is currently known to exist. The script for "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was later extensively modified and broadcast as "A Scheduled Murder" on 11/13/2005.

MILESTONES IN RADIO:

The airing of "The Sign of Four," the Jim French Productions' series, The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, was noteworthy in radio drama history for several reasons.

It is the first time the entire Conan Doyle Canon was produced and aired as a single series for North American radio. It was also the initial time that the Sherlock Holmes, Dr. John H. Watson, Mrs. Hudson and Inspector Lestrade characters were played throughout the entire series by the same actors: John Patrick Lowrie as Sherlock Holmes and Lawrence Albert as Dr. John H. Watson, with the late Lee Paasch as Mrs. Hudson and Rick May as Inspector Lestrade. Every episode was produced with the full authorization of the Estate of Dame Jean Conan Doyle, the daughter of Sir Arthur.

Another first for The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes was that it is the first time that a single writer, M. J. Elliott, adapted the entire Conan Doyle Canon for radio.

LIVE BROADCASTS:

Only two Jim French shows have been broadcast live. These are "The Case Of The Blue Leather Chair," an episode from The Adventures Of Harry Nile, and a stand-alone show, "Moving Day." They were broadcast on New Year's Eve 1995.

RECORDING SESSIONS:

Starting in 1974, over 340 shows that initially aired on KVI Theater of The Mind, KIRO Mystery Playhouse, PEMCO Imagination Theatre, and Imagination Theatre had been recorded before live audiences.

Through January 2000, recording sessions were held at the Museum of History and Industry in Seattle.

Recording sessions were most recently held at the Kirkland Performance Center in Kirkland, WA. The recording sessions were open to the public and usually occurred at roughly two month intervals. Usually, episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile and The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes and/or The Classic Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes were recorded at each session.
